

ALTA

NetNews

ALTA, WHERE ATLANTA COMES TO PLAY

SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2018

IN THE HUNT

Fall offers a new chance to bring home the plate

Racquet Giveaway p. 12

BB&T Atlanta Open Fun p. 30

ALTA Scholarship Winners p. 34

TPC Sugarloaf Announces New Tennis Director

TPC Sugarloaf in Duluth has promoted Mike Robertson, its head tennis professional, to the position of director of tennis.

Previously, Robertson spent five years with the Atlanta Athletic Club, where he developed a well-regarded reputation in the Atlanta tennis market. Since joining Sugarloaf, he has taken on a leadership role and has been vocal in wanting to reposition the club, its programming and member experiences into one of the top programs in the market.

Mike Robertson

Players and Charities Benefit from Credo Tennis Championships

Alpharetta-based financial services firm Credo CFOs and CPAs held its fourth annual Credo Tennis Championships from July 10-15 at St Ives Country Club in Johns Creek. The tournament has a total purse of $30,000 and includes a men's doubles 32 draw and mixed doubles 16 draw. The tournament has featured players such as Donald Young, Evan King and Melanie Oudin. This year's mixed champions were Melanie Oudin and Salif Kante. The men's doubles champions were newcomers Kyle Koch and Yancy Dennis. The prize money is sponsored by local businesses and all of the proceeds of the tournament and donations go to charity.

Kyle Koch and Yancy Dennis

A HEALTHY MATCH

Cigna loves tennis. In fact, we love all activities that promote healthier lifestyles. When it comes to better health, fitness is the name of the game.

Learn how to stay on top of your health at Cigna.com/TakeControl.

Proud partner

All Cigna products and services are provided exclusively by or through operating subsidiaries of Cigna Corporation, including Cigna Health and Life Insurance Company. The Cigna name, logo, and other Cigna marks are owned by Cigna Intellectual Property, Inc. 916238 04/18 © 2018 Cigna.